

Spotlight On: Franciscan Health System Tacoma, WA

Looking for a great place to work? Take a look at these top facilities in beautiful Washington State. Located close to the excitement of Seattle, you can enjoy great entertainment, fine dining, shopping and more—all while working at a top-ranked healthcare facility. For more information on these and other great InteliStaf Travel nursing opportunities, contact your Recruiter or visit intelistaftavel.com.

St. Joseph, Tacoma, WA

St. Joseph is a 320-bed regional medical center located on a hillside overlooking the port and downtown Tacoma. The physicians and staff of St. Joseph serve our neighbors in the greater Tacoma/Pierce County area, and portions of King and Kitsap counties. St. Joseph has been ranked among the Top 100 hospitals in the nation seven times by Solucient* (Thompson Healthcare), the leading provider of decision support solutions for the healthcare industry.

St. Clare, Lakewood

St. Clare is a 106-bed community hospital, backed up by the resources of St. Joseph Medical Center's specialized services, where patients can stay close to home and receive outstanding care. It has been ranked among the Top 100 hospitals in the U.S. five times by Solucient.

St. Francis, Federal Way

St. Francis is a 110-bed hospital that has been ranked among the Top 100 hospitals in the U.S. five times by Solucient. It is designated a Blue Distinction Center for weight loss surgery by Premera Blue Cross and Regence Blue Shield.

About Tacoma, WA

Tacoma, Washington is nestled on the shores of Commencement Bay. It is an international gateway to the Pacific Rim and the world. The city also serves as a gateway to some of the most magnificent natural wonders in the world, such as Puget Sound, Mount Rainier National Park and the Olympic Peninsula.

